

The NAO Song (tune: Chattanooga Choo-Choo)
(written by Art DeGaetano, NRCC, and his wife)

Pardon me, George
Is that the Arctic Oscillation
Up in the north
Bring all your cold air forth
In the Azores
It's still the Arctic Oscillation
Pressure's high down there
Changes the flow of the air.

It leaves the Manitoba prairie, barrels south to our door
Over Hudson Bay, there will be some snow in store
Oh an inch an hour
What a snow shower
Nolan's Colorado snow can't beat our powder.

When the phase is positive, snowin no
Then you know that warmer air is what you're in for Bringing sunny weather, it is such a pleasure
Ow Ow NAO is no more.
