

Colorado State University, Fort
Collins, CO Weather Station
Monthly Summary Report

Month: October

Year: 2008

Report created by: Wendy Ryan

Temperature:

Mean T_{\max} 65.0 was degrees 0.8 above average for the month.

Mean T_{\min} 35.9 was 0.6 degrees above average for the month.

Mean T_{mean} 50.5 was 0.7 degrees above average for the month.

The maximum daily temperature was 78.6 and occurred on 10/2/08.

The minimum daily temperature was 22.4 and occurred on 10/27/08.

Misc. Temperature (record status, days above/below thresholds):

No daily temperature records were broken in October 2008.

Precipitation:

The total monthly precipitation was 0.81" and was 0.17" below average (83% of average).

The total monthly snowfall was a Trace.

Misc. Precipitation (predominant type, record status, etc.):

No daily precipitation records were broken in October 2008.

Wind:

Due to problems with the anemometer at the campus station, wind data is not suitable for analysis this month.